

Grading rubric

Section	Points
1. Formatting requirements observed ( 5 points )
a. Paper chosen from list & assignment length observed.	5
2. 3 papers that are referenced by the chosen paper ( 45 points )
a. Paper 1 experiment and main finding discussed in detail, how this paper provided rationale for the chosen paper is clearly stated. The findings of each paper and relationship between papers are your own ideas and written using your own words.	15
b. Paper 2 experiment and main finding discussed in detail, how this paper provided rationale for the chosen paper is clearly stated. The findings of each paper and relationship between papers are your own ideas and written using your own words.	15
c. Paper 3 experiment and main finding discussed in detail, how this paper provided rationale for the chosen paper is clearly stated. The findings of each paper and relationship between papers are your own ideas and written using your own words.	15
3. 2 papers that cite the chosen paper ( 30 points )
a. Paper 1 experiment and main finding discussed in detail, implications of the chosen paper are discussed. The findings of each paper and relationship between papers are your own ideas and written using your own words.	15
b. Paper 2 experiment and main finding discussed in detail, implications of the chosen paper are discussed. The findings of each paper and relationship between papers are your own ideas and written using your own words.	15
4. Connection to our in-class discussion ( 10 points )
a. How did our in-class discussion of the chosen paper influence this assignment? Did someone bring up an interesting idea? Did our discussion lead to questions that you wanted to research further?	10
5. In-line citations and reference page ( 10 points )
a. Complete and consistent in-line citation format, in-line citations and bibliography items match.	5
b. Compete and consistent bibliography format, references are 5 peer-reviewed papers published in scientific journals (and chosen paper).	5
TOTAL	100